1 Abstract

Research Title :

``Distribution Project of IFS Japanese Morphological Grammar Rules``

Project Reader :

SANO Hiroshi,

Lecturer, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Contents :

In 1996, under the assistance of the AITEC's research funding program, we have developed the IFS (ICOT Free Software) Japanese Morphological Grammar Rules and its user/operation manuals.

For its wide use, the tool includes:

- (1) GUI-based software for Microsoft Windows(R).
This includes the environment for testing the morphological grammar rules, by which users can easily modify grammar rules to suit their needs.
- (2) The manuals, providing an efficient and powerful help for the users.

The term of research :

June, 1997 ~ January, 1999

Members :

SANO Hiroshi, Lecturer, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

TAKAHASHI Sakutarou, Professor, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

NISHIBU Shigeo, Nihon University

Xie Yun, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Kim Mi Song, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

MAEJIMA Megumi, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

FUJIMOTO Yuka, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

In cooperation with :

HAMANAKA Tooru,

Japan Information Processing Service Co.,Ltd.

SASSANO Manabu,

Fujitsu Laboratories. Ltd.
